

A stunning three toned chicken wire basket covered M.42 steel helmet

For additional camouflage this steel helmet has a chicken wire basket that has been applied to the helmet prior to the camouflage painting and this is evident from the residue left upon the wire framework that is held in place by means of two wire hooks to either side of the helmet's inner skirt.

